

Privacy Policy

Personal Data Protection

Document No.	HR-PL-001
Version	2.1
Effective Date	1 January 2026
Policy Owner	Human Resources Department, jointly with the Data Protection Officer (DPO)
Approved By	Risk Management and Data Governance Committee
Review Cycle	Every 12 months, or upon changes to relevant law

1. Purpose

Example Business Public Company Limited (the “Company”) recognises the importance of protecting the personal data of employees, job applicants, customers, business partners, and other individuals associated with the Company. This policy establishes the principles, practices, and safeguards for the collection, use, and disclosure of personal data in compliance with the Personal Data Protection Act B.E. 2562 (PDPA) and other applicable laws.

2. Scope

This policy applies to directors, executives, employees at all levels, temporary staff, contractors, and any third party engaged to process personal data on the Company's behalf, whether in physical, electronic, or any other recorded form, across all departments and work locations of the Company.

3. Definitions

Term	Meaning
Personal Data	Any information relating to a person which enables the identification of that person, whether directly or indirectly
Sensitive Personal Data	Data concerning race, religion, health records, biometric data, or other data as defined by law
Data Subject	The natural person to whom the personal data collected, used, or disclosed by the Company relates
Data Controller	The Company or unit that has the authority to make decisions regarding the collection, use, or disclosure of data
Data Processor	A person or entity that processes data on the instructions of the data controller

4. Data Protection Principles

The Company adheres to the following principles in all personal data processing activities:

- Lawfulness, Fairness and Transparency
- Purpose Limitation
- Data Minimisation
- Accuracy and keeping data up to date
- Storage Limitation
- Integrity and Confidentiality (appropriate security)
- Accountability

5. Categories of Personal Data Collected

Data Subject Group	Examples of Data Collected
Employees	Identification details, employment history, salary, family information, health data for benefits purposes
Job Applicants	Resume/CV, assessment results, education and employment history
Customers	Name, address, contact details, purchase and transaction history
Business Partners	Contact person details, bank account information for payment purposes

6. Legal Basis for Processing

The Company will collect, use, or disclose personal data based on one of the following legal grounds: consent of the data subject, performance of a contract, compliance with a legal obligation, the Company's legitimate interests, or to prevent or suppress a danger to a person's life, body, or health. The Company will clearly inform the data subject of the applicable legal basis in each case.

7. Rights of the Data Subject

Data subjects are entitled to the following rights under applicable law:

- The right to access and obtain a copy of their personal data
- The right to request correction of inaccurate or outdated data
- The right to request erasure or destruction of personal data
- The right to object to the collection, use, or disclosure of data
- The right to withdraw consent at any time
- The right to request data portability to another data controller
- The right to lodge a complaint with the Personal Data Protection Committee (PDPC)

Data subjects may exercise these rights by submitting a request to the Data Protection Officer through the contact channels listed in the appendix of this document. The Company will consider and respond to such requests within 30 days.

8. Data Retention

The Company will retain personal data only for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes of collection. In general, employee data will be retained throughout the employment period and for a further 10 years after termination of employment for legal and tax purposes. Upon expiry of the retention period, the Company will destroy the data or render it permanently non-identifiable.

9. Disclosure to Third Parties and Cross-Border Data Transfer

The Company may disclose personal data to external service providers, such as IT system providers, social security and group insurance providers, and government agencies with legal authority, to the extent necessary and under appropriately strict confidentiality agreements. Where personal data must be transferred overseas, the Company will ensure that the destination country maintains an adequate standard of data protection as required by law.

10. Data Security Measures

The Company implements technical and administrative measures to prevent unauthorised access, use, alteration, or disclosure of data. Detailed security standards are set out in the Company's Information Technology Security Policy (Document No. HR-IT-002), covering data encryption, access controls based on user privileges, and monitoring of system usage logs.

11. Roles and Responsibilities

Role	Responsibilities
Data Protection Officer (DPO)	Provides advice, monitors policy compliance, and serves as the point of contact with the PDPC
Human Resources	Ensures employee and applicant personal data is managed in accordance with this policy
Information Technology	Implements technical measures to protect data within information systems
All Employees	Comply strictly with this policy and report any irregularities immediately upon discovery

12. Personal Data Breach Notification

Upon discovering or reasonably suspecting a personal data breach, employees must report it to the DPO within 24 hours. The Company will notify the Office of the Personal Data Protection Committee within 72 hours of becoming aware of the incident. If the breach poses a high risk to the rights and freedoms of data subjects, the Company will notify affected data subjects without undue delay, together with remediation measures.

13. Penalties for Non-Compliance

Employees who violate or fail to comply with this policy will be subject to disciplinary action under the Company's work regulations, ranging from a written warning to termination of employment, and may also be subject to civil or criminal liability under applicable law.

14. Policy Review

This policy will be reviewed at least once a year, or whenever there are changes in law, organisational structure, or technology that materially affect the protection of personal data.

Appendix: Data Protection Officer Contact Channels

Email: dpo@example-business.co.th Phone: 02-000-0000 ext. 199 Address: Data Governance Department, 12th Floor, Head Office Building

This document is mock data prepared solely for training and system-testing purposes and does not constitute an actual, legally binding policy.